

ELDER LAW PRACTICE

DONALD A. NOGOWSKI, ESQ.

Hello and Happy August!

Below please find a few articles with Elder Law updates, which may be of interest to you. If you have any questions about the material, or want to know how it may affect you or a loved one, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours,

Donald A Nogowski, Esq.

How to Vote While in a Nursing Home

Although voting is the hallmark of a democracy, it isn't easy if you are in a long-term care facility. Nursing home and other long-term care facility residents face several challenges to voting, from registering to vote to actually casting a ballot.

MORE

What Is Undue Influence?

Saying that there has been "undue influence" is often used as a reason to contest a will or estate plan, but what does it mean?

DETAILS

Fighting Nursing Home Discrimination Against Medicaid Recipients

While it is illegal for a nursing home to discriminate against a Medicaid recipient, it still happens. To prevent such discrimination, nursing home residents and their families need to know their rights.

READ ON

About to Turn 65? Your Health Insurer May Be Automatically Enrolling You in Its Own Medicare Plan

Some Medicare-age people are having important Medicare enrollment choices made for them, often without their knowledge/

FULL STORY

Unsubscribe | This newsletter is from Donald A Nogowski, Esq.